The Ashby Windward Foundation partners with Ministry of Carriacou and Petite Martinique Affairs

Vorkers at the project site

L-R: Corine Milne, PS Williams, Christofer Ashby, Fitz Cox, Engineer Jose Samuel, Principal Cleopatra Lambert

Vith the Government f Grenada seriously dvocating public-rivate sector part-erships for the evelopment of the Tri-island State, the Ministry of Carriacou and Petite Martinique Affairs is welcoming assistance provided to the Harvey Vale Government School by The Ashby Windward Foundation and its sister foundation Friends Through Books.

The Ministry has expressed gratitude for the Foundation's $16,502 donation that is being used to correct a defective septic tank system at the school.

The work is being carried out by Fitz Cox.

The Ashby Windward Foundation's guiding principle is to improve the lives of the citizens of Carriacou and Petite Martinique.

Representatives of The Ashby Windward Founda-tion visited the Harvey Vale Govern-ment School, along with Acting Permanent Secretary in the Ministry of Carriacou and Petite Martinique Affairs Javan Williams.

Meanwhile, the Ashby Windward Foundation and Friends Through Books have also been playing a critical role in the development of the health and education sectors by helping to meet the medical cost of people who cannot afford it as well as providing educational grants and books for deserving students.